A decade in the late 19th Century brought together a group of artistic talent known as The Aesthetic Movement. Captivated by the hand-made, and fastidious about every detail in design and architecture, they collectively influenced the world around them in celebration and appreciation of decorative beauty.

It is this moment in time that inspires our collections of printed, woven and plain fabrics and scenic mural wallpapers. The collections offer an entirely new and enigmatic vision of painted flowers, artful, dynamic geometrics and hints of Oriental watercoloured, inky washes and intricate embroideries. In a brooding, atmospheric palette of midnight and violet, sepia, damson and cocoa to softer teal, silver and neutral with rich, resonant notes of contrast, discover a versatile collection that is both contemporary yet beguilingly timeless.
